THE GOULD GROUP LEADS A DECLINE

Traders Apprehensive That Some of the Railroads Cannot Meet Maturing Obligations.

NEW YORK, February 19 .- The fea-NEW YORK, February 18.—Ane teature of the financial situation which was brought into notice by the action of to-day's stock market was the position of corporations, especially the railfroads, with important maturing obligations to mee!, while the falling of in their earning power has encroached so fat on the margin of surplus available for distribution as to seriously impair the market standing of the securities. The Gould group was acutely affected by these considerations to-day, and secretics of other companies whose position is believed to be analogous showed the greatest sympathy.
In the early stages the contrary movement in Missouri Pacific was ignored and prices elsewhere made some headway upwards, and there was a final rally to the best. The rise was halted and a general reaction ensued. The slumping tendency extended to some points is the bond market as well, where the same general causes were at work.

The steps now being taken towards ture of the financial situation which

The steps now being taken towards retrenchment, and efforts of the railroads to meet the falling off in business, offer one of the leading subjects of attention in the financial world. To-day there were reports of concerted action amongst the Western railroad companies looking toward a reduction in wages on their systems. Fears of the strike troubles that may follow are an appreglable influence in the undertone of depression in the securities market. Another decline in copper was an incident of the day. Money on call went above 2 per cent, for the birst time in many days. The closing tone for stocks was strong at the rebound.

Trade Conditions

Bradstreet's on Saturday will say for Richmond and vicinity:
The wholesale dry goods and shoe trade shows slight improvement over last week, this improvement, however, is not general, and sales have shown an increase in localities peculiarly affected. Produce and provisions are in better demand and prices show an unward tendency. Tobacco continues to be marketed in moderate amounts, and prices are well maintained. Lumber continues in little demand, and many mills are shut down. Many laborers and mechanics are unemployed, and factories in practically all lines have curtailed their output. The banks have an ample supply to meet their legitimate demands. Collections are slow and show no improvement over last week.

The United States Circuit Court of Appeals reconvened yesterday morning at 10 o'clock, with Circuit Judge Pritohard presiding, and District Judges Purnell, Waddill and Dayton sitting alternately.

Judges Purnell, Wadail and Daylon sitting atternately.

Cases Argued.

No. 774, Ida G. Jackson, appellant, vs. Henry C. Jackson et al, appellest, appeal from the Circuit Court at Parkersburg, W. Va. Cause argued by James S. McCluer, of Parkersburg. W. Va., and Seth T. McCormick, of Williamsport, Pa., for the appellant, and by William Beard and B. M. Ambler, of Parkersburg, W. Va., for the appellecs, and submitted.

No. 775, William N. Camp, appellant, L. Camber of North Company, appellee; appeal from the Circuit Court at Norfolk, Va. Cause argued by Robert M. Hughes, of Norfolk, Va., for the appellant. Pending the argument, court adjourned until this morning at 10 o'clock.

Case in Call To-Day.

Case in Call To-Day,

On the Local Markets

On the tobacco warehouse floors yesterday close to 125,000 pounds of the weed was sold at top notch prices. Dark stemming tobacco brought an average of $10.65 and good grades of other varities sold as high as $31. The recent good season has already made a great difference in receipts, and it is thought that better sales will be had each day. A conservative estimate places the offerings for the entire week at something like 300,000 pounds.

Grain and Feed.

Pratically no grain is being sold on the exchange. Direct shipments are being received by the millling companies. Oats are still strong and are in good demand. Hay, especially the best grades, is somewhat stronger, being about 50 cents per ton higher. Considerable quantities of grain for seeding purposes will be shipped out as soon as the weather opens.

Does Extensive Damage.

LOWELL, MASS., February 19.—
Eleven men were injured, one probably fatally, by the explosion of the economizer attached to one of the boilers in the new poper-house of the Hamilton Corporation, a cotton manufacturing establishment, in this city to-day. Another man, Thomas Kenneily, a rag collector, was run over by a fire engine that was responding to an alarm of fire from the factory, and was so badly injured that he may die.

The explosion caused an extension die.

The explosion caused an extensive property damage and necessitated the shutting down of the entire plant, throwing out of employment more than 1,800 operatives.

All of the persons who were injured within the power-house were employed by New York and Boston contractors, who had installed the boiler and were operating it. Several persons who were passing were injured by who were passing were injured by being knocked down or cut by flying PARIS, February 19.—A magistrate to-day took the dispositions of Prince Felix de Sagan in connection with charges of forgery against an unknown author of letters, which Count Boni de Castellane, his cousin, produced in court during the course of the recent assault case.

Prince do Sagan maintained accusation both against the forger and against Count Boni as the user of the forged documents, and promised interesting revelations in the near future.

KILLED MAN AT FUNERAL

Crecch Says Mnn He Shot Abused Him for Being Democrat.

[Soccial to The Times-Dispatch.]

ROANOKE, VA., February 19.—
Sherin Stidhan, of Jackson, Ky., arrived here to-day and identified A. Morris, who was in jail for participation in the Greek riot, as Allen Creech, who shot and killed an old man named Charles Robinson, at a funeral in Kentucky two years ago.

Morris admitted that he was the man wanted, and claims the tragedy was caused by Robinson and others abusing him for being a Democratand knocking him down. He escaped from jail in Kentucky and was firing on the Norfolk and Western when he got in the Greek riot.

DALLAS, TEXAS, February 19.—The features of the first day's proceedings of the annual convention of the Southern Cotton Association here to-day was the address of W. B. Thompson, president of the New Orleans Cotton Exchange. Mr. Thompson's subject was "The Functions of Logitimate Cotton Exchanges."

The substance of his argument was that the New Orleans Cotton Exchanges is an indispensable adjunct to the cotton raising industry of the South, in that it furnishes a market where the seller may post the prices lie is willing to take and the buyer may post what he is willing to pay for the staple. He declared against gambling where no actual cotton was involved, but favored dealing in futures, saying this was absolutely necessary. Several delegates replied to Mr. Thompson. B. W. Marston, of East Point, La., declared that the distinction which Mr. Thompson attempted to draw between an exchange and a bucket shop "was the difference hetween tweedle-dee and tweedle-dum." J. A. Taylor, of Guitte tweedle-dum." J. A. Taylor, of Guitte tweedle-dum. Johnson, of Cass Station. Ga., also loined in the discussion. E. D. Smith, of Columbia, S. C., declared that in soing after the bucket shops, the convention was allowing itself to be switched from the real issue. "Men business, said he. "Let us attend to our business by proceeding to make arrangements to warehouse and finance the cotton. What some one in Liverpool or New York or New Orleans may write on a piece of toston is no concern of ours."
